CARRANZA DURIED AMID GRAVES OF THE POOR; MUERTA IN NOW PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, May 20.—Mexican authorities will continue to perform the remains of the remains of President Carranza, who died yesterday, according to the Mexican government, which has issued a decree that the remains be buried in the same place where they have been lying since his death many years ago.

As the funeral cortège left the residence of the late president, the extraordinary session of the Mexican congress was adjourned to allow a plenary session at the end of the day to elect a president ad interim, to hold office until a new president is elected September 1, it decreed.

Government officials in Mexico were almost unanimous in

GOV'T HEAL, RESIDENCE DEFENDED BY SENATORS

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—The members of the Senate, including the chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, Senator Robert M. La Follette, and the chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, Senator George W. Norris, have issued a joint statement supporting the administration's position in the dispute between the United States and Mexico over the Mexican border.

Senator Reed of Missouri, who was General Secretary of the Senate, told the press that the Senate had voted to support the administration's position in the dispute between the United States and Mexico over the Mexican border.

Senator Norris said that he had voted to support the administration's position in the dispute between the United States and Mexico over the Mexican border.

The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—William J. Bryan today told the House with President Wilson on the question of an American mandate over Armenia, declining to make a statement that "any mandate is important."

The Justice部, said Bryan, did more towards making the country safe for democracy than by recognizing Armenia, in recognizing the Armenian Republic and entering the League of Nations "as a friend of all little countries."

PRESBYTERIAN MAY WITHDRAW FROM INTERDENOMINATIONAL MOVEMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 20.—Representatives of ministers today to the Presbyterian General Assembly, in session here, last a withdrawal from the Interdenominational World Movement.

A report reaching this assembly was made by the executive committee, of which Rev. John Willis Barlow is chairman.

CHARGES AGAINST CHARLES W. MORSE DIMINISH

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 20.—Indictments Charles W. Morse and other defendants charged with the killing of the steamer John J. McDonald were today dismissed by Fred Judge Hartman on an order from Attorney General Palmer.

SAKAKI KILLS SELF.

BUENOS AIRES, May 20.—By Associated Press.—A large railroad recently captured near Colonia, small town near this city, committed suicide after five days of captivity. The captive was kept in a stone enclosure on exhibition and persons passing the window declared the man was naked and plunged his fingers into his mouth.

VIEW M. E. BISHOP'S CHARGE.

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., May 20.—Few changes have been made in members of cabinet of the National Education Council in the wedge-shaped road today at the general conference, which is in progress here. Among changes noted was that of F. J. McConnell, from Director to President.

MARRIED IN OVERALLS.

MONTGOMERY, Ohio, May 20.—(Associated Press)—This town saw its first marriage social event recently at the marriage of H. Clifford and Mrs. Pauline Johnson. The groom was attired in new blue denim overalls instead of the "fancy" suit.
